Purposeful Living

About Pat

I came to realize that it is in times of isolation and stillness that God can speak to you. I kept saying to myself, "There must be more to life than this." Through my search, I came across a life coach on television and as I heard her speak, I knew that was the profession for me.

Today, I spend my time presenting keynote and break out presentations, engaging in personal coaching, designing spiritual retreats and revivals, organizing workshops for individuals and organizations and working with women recovering from the loss of a loved one through death or divorce. I speak from the heart to women and men in an effort to help them understand the power they hold to change their life and the lives of so many others. There is no meeting by coincidence and there are incredible opportunities for us to share and grow.

Attendees rave about Pat ~

"I thank God for you, Pat! I was there on Friday night. My mother in law and I attended and I will forever be changed by the words you shared with us!"

"After hearing Pat today, I was reminded that we all have an obligation especially as women, to be true to ourselves and to find the courage to make a difference. I have been inspired to make the necessary changes to touch the lives of those closest to me and of those whom I've yet to meet."
